

Enrichment: A Journal for Pentecostal Ministry

WRITERS GUIDELINES

THE JOURNAL

Enrichment is a quarterly journal for Assemblies of God ministers and other Pentecostal/charismatic leaders. It carries articles and feature material on a wide range of ministry-related topics. It exists for the purpose of enriching and encouraging Pentecostal ministers to equip and empower Spirit-filled believers for effective ministry.

ITS FREE-LANCE MARKET

Free-lance material is accepted on a limited basis in the following areas:

Articles

Slanted to ministers on preaching, pastoral practice, and any ministry-related subject
(1,200-2,100 words)

How-to Features

Program and ministry ideas for ministers/church leaders
(200-500 words)

Sermon Illustrations

Original and previously published material with the original source indicated if the material has been previously published

Sermon Outlines

Abridged

RATE OF PAYMENT

Up to 10 cents per word for first rights; payment on publication

ADDRESS MANUSCRIPT TO:

Enrichment

Attention: Rick Knoth
The General Council of the Assemblies of God
1445 N. Boonville Avenue
Springfield, Missouri 65802

Please include a self-addressed, stamped envelope for reply and/or return of manuscript.